USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCES FUNDING FOR FOR THE CITY OF JUNCTION

Fredericksburg, Texas, June 24, 2003 -- Bryan Daniel, Texas State Director, USDA Rural Development announced that the City of Junction has received a loan of $68,000 and grant of $15,000 through the agency's Community Facilities loan program. The effort is part of USDA Rural Development's national program to help rural areas build and enhance essential community facilities.

"USDA Rural Development's Community Facilities program helps rural communities keep pace with the needs of their rising populations," said Daniel. "Rural residents can utilize our programs to help provide essential public services that will enhance the quality of life for all rural residents."

The funds will be used to purchase a new rescue vehicle. The funding will help give the fire department one critical tool they need to serve the community effectively and efficiently. Watching over Junction and neighboring communities, Junction VFD benefits more than 4,544 citizens. The citizens of Kimble County will contribute $30,000 through the Kimble County Emergency Services District. Also, the Lower Colorado River Authority has provided assistance in the amount of $24,000. The total project cost is estimated at $137,000.

In Fiscal Year 2002, a total of $12 million in direct and guaranteed loans were obligated. Community Facilities loan funds may be used to construct, enlarge, or improve community facilities for health care, public safety, and public services. These loans and grants are made to public entities and non-profit organizations. Examples of eligible projects include rural healthcare clinics, town halls, fire trucks, county safety equipment, jaws of life, early warning systems, community centers, libraries, day care centers, and schools.
